ABOUT US

The JavaScript & Friends Conference is a not-for-profit conference and entirely volunteer run. We are a group of software and technology professionals seeking to bring together a diverse group of JavaScript enthusiasts and friends to learn and network. With this conference, we seek to contribute to the cultivation of a welcoming, inclusive and dynamic tech scene throughout Ohio and the midwestern United States.

You can find out more about us at:

https://javascriptandfriends.com

YOUR AUDIENCE

- Up to 200 Conference Participants around Ohio, the midwestern United States and beyond
- More than 30 speakers from across the tech community
- 20+ volunteers
